PRIDE AND JOY

My two teenage children who continue to surprise me each day with their independent spirits and diverse interests. Another source of pride is growing my law business from a one-woman operation to a thriving law office with two separate locations, and starting a real estate business with my husband and a business partner in 2009.

PERFECT DAY

My perfect day begins when I get up early and go to a Spinning class then have time to bake something special for my family. Then I go to work where I may help someone through a difficult time by advocating for their interests or show a prospective buyer their new home. I still have time in my day to watch my daughter run track or my son play golf.

LOOKING FORWARD

I have grown my law business each year for the past several years, and I look forward to expanding my focus into other areas of law that will give me opportunities to serve the community and reach out to more people. My husband and I look forward to utilizing our unique blend of character and experience to help more people through the process of selling their home.

PASS IT ON

I feel that one of the most important aspects of my job, both as an attorney and a real estate broker, is to help people move forward and take the first steps into the next chapter of their lives. It is important for me to be able to pass on not only my legal knowledge to my clients, but also to help them gain perspective on their lives and insight from my experiences. I feel a deep sense of fulfillment by being a wife, a mother and mentor to a new generation of lawyers.
